

PRIVACY STATEMENT - NEVADA

This Nevada Data Privacy Statement, including any future modifications (the "Statement"), forms a material part of credit.org's Privacy Policy. It applies to credit.org's treatment of Nevada consumers' personal information in accordance with Nevada Senate Bill 220 ("SB-220"). If you are a Nevada "consumer" (as defined under SB-220), the purpose of this Statement is to briefly describe, a) your rights under SB-220; and b) how you may make a request for those rights to be enforced.

YOUR RIGHTS AS A NEVADA CONSUMER UNDER SB-220

SB-220 grants Nevada-based consumers the right to opt-out of the "sale" of their "covered information" by web "operators" to another person in exchange for monetary consideration. SB-220 defines a consumer as a person who seeks or acquires, by purchase or lease, any good, service, money or credit for personal, family or household purposes from the internet, website or online service of an operator. Under SB-220, "sale" means the exchange of covered information for monetary consideration by the operator to a person for the person to license or sell the covered information to additional persons. The definition of "sale" under SB-220 does not include disclosures of covered information:

- To a person who processes the covered information on behalf of the operator;
- To a person with whom the consumer has a direct relationship for the purposes of providing a product or service requested by the consumer;
- To a person for purposes which are consistent with the reasonable expectations of a consumer considering the context in which the consumer provided the covered information to the operator;
- To a person who is an affiliate of the operator; or
- To a person as an asset that is part of a merger, acquisition, bankruptcy or other transaction in which the person assumes control of all or part of the assets of the operator.

EXERCISING YOUR RIGHTS UNDER SB-220

If you are a Nevada consumer and wish to exercise your rights related to SB-220, please contact credit.org at compliance@credit.com. Please note that if we receive a request from you to exercise your rights, credit.org has the right to have you take reasonable steps to confirm your identity. Credit.org is not obligated to, and will not, give effect to data subject rights unless credit.org can reasonably verify that the request is a "verified request" (as defined under SB-220).
